

Emerald Health Therapeutics Expands its Cannabis Supply with Purchase from Supreme Pharmaceuticals

Victoria, BC, September 19, 2017 – Emerald Health Therapeutics Inc. (EHT) (TSXV: EMH; OTCQX: EMHTF) today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Emerald Health Botanicals Inc., has completed a purchase of dried cannabis from Supreme Pharmaceuticals Inc.'s (Supreme) (TSXV: FIRE) subsidiary, 7ACRES.

“Emerald’s strategy emphasizes value-added downstream product development. Our ability to source low-cost cannabis from our own facilities is increasing through our Pure Sunfarms joint venture, which presents industry-leading scale and cost potential. Partners such as Supreme will help us supplement our supply for the higher-end dried flower segment, both for current patients and for the anticipated growth in domestic and international demand for medical and adult-use cannabis,” said Dr. Bin Huang, President and CEO of Emerald. “Supreme’s 7ACRES is a high quality grower that meets our own standards for cultivation, and which we are pleased to work with to expand our sources of dried cannabis.”
